

Sarah E. Brownlow | Partner

sbrownlow@vaetlaw.com

T: +1 804.592.3600

F: +1 804.497.5916

SARAH E. BROWNLOW focuses her practice on advising individuals, families, and fiduciaries on all aspects of estate planning and estate and trust administration. She develops tax-efficient estate and trust strategies for clients in Virginia, New York, and abroad. Sarah also assists entrepreneurs in formulating effective business succession plans to eliminate ambiguity and minimize tax liability and counsels clients on charitable giving techniques that minimize tax liability while making a powerful philanthropic impact.

Professional accomplishments

- Estate Planning Council of Richmond, Member
- Monroe County, NY Bar Association, Estates and Trusts Law section, Past Vice Chair
- Trust Administrators Council of Richmond, Member
- Virginia Bar Association's Section on Wills, Trusts & Estates, Member
- ChildSavers, Endowment Fund Trustee

Admissions to Practice

- Virginia
- New York

Prior work experience

- Nixon Peabody LLP (Rochester, NY), Associate
- Stroock, Stroock & Lavan LLP (New York, NY), Associate
- Willkie, Farr & Gallagher LLP (New York, NY), Associate

Education and recognition

- Vanderbilt University Law School, J.D.
- The College of William & Mary, B.B.A.
- Selected for inclusion as a "Super Lawyer," Estate Planning & Probate Law, Virginia Super Lawyers
- Selected for inclusion in Best Lawyers in America, Trusts and Estates